AGREEMENT

This agreement is made and entered into by and between Hawkeye Area Community Action Program ("HACAP"), hereinafter referred to as the "Employer," and Service Employees International Union Local 199, hereinafter referred to as the "Union".

ARTICLE I

RECOGNITION

The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive representative for purposes of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment and other terms and conditions of employment of the following employees: All full-time and regular part-time Head Start/Early Head Start Teachers, Family Support Worker/Home Visitors, Assistant Teachers, Teacher Associates, Service Workers and Housekeepers employed by the Employer in eastern Iowa; excluding all managers, confidential employees, guards, and supervisors as defined in the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and all other employees.

Regular part-time employees are defined as employees that are scheduled to work for the employer at least 30 (thirty) hours per week for a minimum of 33 (thirty-three) weeks per contract year.

ARTICLE II

CHECKOFF

Upon receipt of a written authorization form from an employee, the Employer shall, pursuant to such authorization, deduct from the wages due said employee the amount of regular monthly due and transmit the sum to the Union within ten (10) calendar days after such deductions are made. The Employer shall provide a complete list of the employees for whom such dues have been deducted. The Employer shall provide twice annually a separate list of all current bargaining unit employees for whom such dues have not been deducted.

The Union agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Employer against any and all claims, costs, suits or other forms of liability arising out of the application of this provision between the parties.

ARTICLE III

PROBATIONARY PERIOD

All new employees shall be considered probationary for one hundred eighty (180) calendar days during which time said employees may be discharged at the discretion of the Employer. A new employee may not be removed from probation or attain full status until he/she has been satisfactorily employed in the position, criminal and child abuse records checks have been completed (45 CFR 1301.31(b)), and the Head Start Policy Council has approved the hiring (45 CFR 1304.5)(xi)). If these record checks are not completed within 180 days, the employee shall be considered to have not completed probation and shall be terminated. Probationary discharges shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure.

ARTICLE IV

HIRING

When the employer determines a vacancy exists within a job classification, within five working days the employer shall simultaneously internally post and advertise the position to all members of the bargaining unit, other employees, and the general public. Internal posting (to members of the bargaining unit and other employees) shall be for a minimum of five (5) working days. All bargaining unit employees and other employees interested in the position must notify the Human Resource Specialist in writing within the posting period. The position will be filled by applicants as follows:

1. The employee in the same job classification with the most seniority will receive the position.
2. If no employee currently in the job classification applied, the most senior employee in the "Advancement Opportunities Program" for the job classification will receive the position.
3. If the vacancy still exists, the employer will award the position to the applicant (internal or external) who is the best-qualified candidate for the position as determined solely by the employer.

If the employer determines that two or more equally qualified current employees are the best-qualified candidates, the most senior employee will be awarded the position. Each internal applicant shall be notified when the position is filled.

The successful applicant shall receive written notification including the hours, the type of assignment, and the rate of pay; unsuccessful applicants shall receive notice that they were not awarded the vacancy.

Each employee will have the opportunity to fill a vacancy within their current job classification, limited to one time per year between September 1 and August 31. Reassignments due to reductions, site closure or reorganization shall not be counted against the one time limitation. If an employee is moved by the employer subsequent to making a voluntary move, they shall be entitled to one additional move during that year. An employee however may apply and be selected to fill a position for the next year during the current September 1 through August 31 period.

Probationary employees must remain in their current positions until they have satisfactorily completed their probationary period, unless the employer waives this restriction.

ARTICLE V

SENIORITY AND REDUCTION IN FORCE

SECTION 1 SENIORITY

- A. Definition. Seniority shall be defined as the employee's length of continuous service in the employ of the Employer since her/his last hiring date. The employer will post the seniority list annually on the second Wednesday in April on bulletin boards customarily used to provide notices to employees. A copy of the seniority list shall be mailed to the Union. Employees shall have twenty (20) days after the date the seniority list is posted in which to appeal their seniority date after which time the seniority dates shall be as shown. The Employer shall send the seniority list to all employees who are absent from the Employer due to extended leave on the day of the posting.
- B. Breaks in Seniority. A break in seniority occurs upon separation from employment through voluntary resignation, discharge, or upon lapse of recall rights. For the purpose of this Article only, employees who are rehired within six (6) months of separation shall retain the seniority they held prior to the most recent separation. However, employees will not accumulate any seniority during the six (6) month separation. Scheduled breaks for employees assigned to school year classrooms are not considered a break in seniority.

SECTION 2 REDUCTION IN FORCE

- A. Definition. A reduction in force occurs when the employer reduces the number of positions within a classification in a specific county.
- B. Order of Reduction. When the Employer determines to decrease the work force within a specific job classification within a county, the Employer will reduce said force in consideration of seniority, funding sources, agency needs, client needs, employee's skills, qualifications, and performance within the classification impacted within that specific county. However, probationary employees within the job classification shall be laid off first.
- C. Reduction Process. In the event that a reduction, site closure, or reorganization is planned in advance, the displaced employee(s) will be given written notice at least ten (10) working days prior to the event. The displaced employees will be provided opportunities to take any vacant position for which they are qualified within their current job classification. If there are no vacancies in the displaced employee's current job classification, but there are vacant positions available at a lower classification, the Employer may temporarily assign the displaced employee to fill the lower classification position at no loss of pay. If more than one displaced employee applies and is qualified for the same vacant position the Employer will use the criteria in Section 2 (B) above to determine which employee will be placed in the vacant position. They may also apply for a position in a higher job classification for which they are qualified pursuant to the Promotional Opportunity Plan approved by the Head Start/Early Head Start Policy Council, (subject to Regional Office's approval, where applicable.)

SECTION 3 RECALL

- A. Order. The most senior employee in a given classification shall be the first recalled into that classification.

- B. Return to Work. In the event of a recall, the laid off employee shall be given notice of such recall by registered or certified mail, sent to the address last given to the Employer by the employee, with a copy to the Union. Within seven (7) calendar days after the receipt of the Employer's notice, the employee must notify the Employer of her/his intent to return to work and must actually report to work as specified in the recall notice.

If the employee being recalled was laid off from a position in the county where the vacancy exists and the employee fails to notify the employer of his/her intent to return to work and/or fails to actually report to work as specified in the recall notice, he/she shall lose all seniority and recall rights. If the employee being recalled was laid off from a position in another county and he/she declines the recall or fails to comply as outlined above, he/she will not lose their seniority rights.

To expedite filling vacant positions when all the employees eligible for recall to a particular position in a job classification were previously employed outside the county where the vacancy exists, the employer may send recall notices and simultaneously post and advertise the position, provided the most senior employee(s), eligible for recall to the job classification are given full opportunity to accept the recall. All recall rights shall terminate within 12 months from the date of the employee's date of layoff. Probationary employees have no recall rights

ARTICLE VI

HOURS OF WORK

Employees shall be entitled to a fifteen (15) minute paid break for every four (4) hours worked scheduled by the supervisor to meet program needs.

Employees transferred temporarily or temporarily performing the duties of a position in a higher pay classification that is not her/his regular position, for more than five (5) consecutive work days shall be paid at the rate of the temporarily assigned position retroactive to when they began performing the duties at the higher pay classification.

ARTICLE VII

- Step 1: Within fourteen (14) calendar days of the incident giving rise to the grievance, the grievant shall take the matter up with her/his immediate supervisor and attempt to reach an informal resolution. - Step 4: If the grievance is not settled at Step 3, the Union may appeal it to arbitration. The Union shall provide written notification of their intent to arbitrate within seven (7) calendar days after the receipt of CEO or Designee written Step 3 answer.

binding. The costs of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union.

If any time limits contained in this Article are not met, the grievance shall be considered untimely and shall not be pursued. The time limits contained in this Article shall not be deemed waived except by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union.
